We designed this sectional circular sofa to entice you to sit and chat together. Exuding the relaxed elegance of a conversation pit circa 1970s, you can configure a combination of up to four sections to suit your space. Two sections side by side form a sociable semi-circle, three sections are the optimum combination to get conversation flowing, while four sections make the conversation pit a modern reality. You can also choose one section, with or without armrests, which makes for a cosy and inviting curved sofa. The art of conversation in a sofa.
